OK Thanks.

428/40.1+ , 343+ and 195.1, 517, 521 look like the best searches in 428.

Beth,

There is not a release liner after all in this case. The claims were referring to another layer.

After looking at the claims it appears that the invention has to do with how the indicia is situated relative to the other layers.

If you still do not want this case I can transfer it to Tamra.

Thx, Rena
